STEP 5 – Your presentation, your transparencies – NEW !

1 Until February 28, 2007

For your oral presentation at the GOR07 the usual guidelines apply:

- Length about max. 15-20 minutes. Plus 10 minutes discussion.
- The transparencies have to be in English.
- The presentation language can be English or German while English is preferred.

Several lectures will be gathered to a session. Each session gets a session chair who organizes the discussion of the single contributions within one session. The names of the session chairs will be announced shortly before the conference starts.

You will find the number of "your" session when the final program is published (about January 15, 2007) at www.gor.de/program.

You will find the room number of your session signposted at the conference place.

Please note that later program modifications are at any time possible. Please inform regularly under www.gor.de about the time of your session.

☛ Your transparencies

For GOR07 we changed the organization of the transparencies. We will load them into the conference computer system before the conference. So you will find your files already at the conference desk when you come to Leipzig.

For this reason it is necessary to send us your transparencies in the final version until February 28, 2007.

Please you send your transparencies via the Conferencetool to the organizer.

- Please name them as follows: lastname_firstname_“Title_of_Presentation“.
- And use following data formats: Powerpoint Presentation (PPT or PPS) compatible with Windows XP (SP 2) and MS Powerpoint 2003.
